

to catch the 3:10 o'clock train for New York.

The couple would have gone directly to the home of Dr. Webb on their arrival in town last evening but for the fact that the house is closed.

Former Engagement Broken.
Some two years ago Miss Gertrude Gaynor was reported engaged to Alexander Stewart Wetherell, but the engagement was broken off. Mr. Wetherell is a wealthy broker and well connected. At the time the engagement was broken it was given out that the young people had mutually agreed to drop their plan as they had found they were not entirely suited to each other.

Rufus W. Gaynor, a son of the Mayor, took a wife without consulting his father. On Dec. 10, 1908, he went to Chicago with Marie, daughter of New London, Conn., whom he married there. The marriage was annulled later.

13-YEAR OTHELLO DENIES KNIFING HIS DESDEMONA

gadder on't an' a while, an' I kinder liked her—you know."

"Were you jealous of her?"

"Naw—nuttin' like that—(indignantly)—but, yer see, she went ter Coney wid Blakie, an' he giv'er a candy cane, 'n'—"

"Who was Blakie?"

"Oh, he's a feller she sort of liked—you know—an' he's no good, an' I axed her ter smash the candy cane an' say she wuz sorry she tuk it—you know; but she wouldn't, an'—"

"And you had a little knife in your hand and scratched her with it?"

"Naw, nuttin' like dat. I didn't have no knife. But she wouldn't say she wuz sorry an' fit back. She had a stick wid nails in de end uv it, an' she tried to stick me eyes out—an'—"

"Den I soaked her."

"Well, what then?" as the youthful Moor lapsed again into retrospection.

"Den I soaked her wid me knuckles, not wid no knife. I didn't have no knife. Mebbe me fat hid de stick she had an' made it cut her up some, but it wuzn't no knife."

"Then what did you do?"

"Well, she yelled an' de blood flow an' I got scared, an' run an' told her mudder Fanny was hurt. Den I run home an' crawled in bed an'—"

"Then the policeman came and got you?"

"Geet yes he did, an' dat made me feel worse—you know. I wuz sorry fer hittin' de girl, but she hadn't ought ter took that candy cane from Blakie."

Just then the motherly probation officer came along with Chief Clerk Ernest, Coulter to assure Willie that he would like living for a few days at the Children's Society and to take him there. Fattling his mother on the cheek as he turned away with his new guardians, the youngster sniffed a little as he blurted out:

"Don't you cry, mudder, I'll be all right."

WOULD KILL MAYOR'S POWER OVER POLICE.

High officials of the uniformed police are packing a bill to take police control away from the Mayor. The bill will be introduced in the Legislature within a week. It provides for the election of five commissioners, to take office next January. William E. Murphy, attorney for the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, is the author of the bill.

"If it becomes a law there will be no excuse for police inefficiency," Murphy said today. "The commissioners will be elected for terms ranging from one year to five years. The biggest feature of the bill will be the regulation of police trials."
